THOSE WERE THE DAYS ...

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We the editors of the 1974 yearbook would like to express our appreciation to the many people behind the scenes who have contributed to the success of this yearbook.

A great debt of gratitude is due Bill Winters and his father for donating their time and effort in the making of our booth.

We send our very special thanks to Mrs. Puerto, for her helping us to get started when the times were rough.

There is also a need to thank the office, the people who pulled us through many a bind. Their help has been greatly appreciated.

A special thanks to "Charlie", the night custodian of the wing, for just being there.

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while — Please do not grieve and shed wild tears And hug your sorrow to you through the years, But start out bravely with a gallant smile; And for my sake and in my name Live on and do all things the same, Feed not your loneliness on empty days, But fill each waking hour in useful ways, Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; And never, never be afraid to die,

For I am waiting for you in the sky!

When through one Leo Sullivan A little spirit and competition A little more love and joy A little more light and truth Comes into the world; Then that boys' life had meaning.

It is fitting that the football section of the 1974 Yearbook is dedicated to the senior football players on our squad. These seniors, under the leadership of a new coaching staff with different philosophies, dedicated themselves to a new system of football. This devotion was responsible for our season ending as it did. It is the hope of the coaching staff that our younger players approach the game of football with the same desire as our senior players did this year.

DESIDERATA

GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, & REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. % Avoid loud & aggressive persons; they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. \(\mathbb{K}\) Keep interested in your own career, however humble: it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all arridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. * Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nuture strength of the spirit to shield vou in sudden misfortune. But do not distress vourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. \(\square a \) child of the universe, no less than the trees & stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. \(\mathbb{F} \) Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. % % %
